The P word may be the heaviest burden women bear. All the misguided things that we do to gain it, keep us away from what we need most...the unconditional love of God the Father. Jennifer tells us what, why, and how in this study guide, a map toward the wholeness we were created for.

One of the best testaments to what Jennifer is doing for the young girls and women of today is a comment from my eleven-year-old granddaughter: "Grammy, I want to read this book and hear her again. She's good and I learned a lot." This is exactly what I experienced from a grown-up perspective when I was introduced to Jennifer's amazing story. Read it and see if you don't get the real story from an icon model and a powerful speaker of truth.

Jen has poured out her heart to Him and He has conveyed His grace for you through these very pages. I dare you to not just treat this as "yet-another-small-group-blah-blah-study-guide" BUT to genuinely and authentically step into it with an open mind and willing heart, with the warning: if you do, your life will NEVER be the same again. I know, because mine isn't. Thank you, Jen, for declaring the truth as beauty in His sight.

As a Christian Counselor in private practice, God has given me many teens and young adults to work with who suffer with strongholds such as self-injury, eating disorders, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, and personality disorders. As I peel away the layers of their pain with them, I find that at the core, in most cases, is a lack of identity in Christ. The Girl Perfect Study Guide will be a tremendous asset and tool that God can use to bring healing to their hurt and His identity to their confused and searching souls.

Do you hate to see a grown man cry? Then don't let him read Jennifer Strickland's Girl Perfect Study Guide. That is precisely what I did when I read Jennifer's manuscript. This isn't your ordinary boring, pedantic workbook; it's alive in the Spirit and capable of bringing life to all who read it. So go ahead and cry with me. It's cathartic. Just don't tell your husband that you saw him crying.
